

Mr. William T. Davis, Senior Associate Attorney, Naggjar & Sarif Family Law

Mr. William T. Davis has practiced extensively in the areas of family and domestic relations law since 2009. A graduate of the University of Mississippi School of Law, Davis has been an active member of the State Bar of Georgia since 2009, and is a member of the State Bar's Family Law Section. Davis currently serves as President for the State Bar of Georgia's Young Lawyers Division (YLD) and is a member of the State Bar's Executive Committee and State Disciplinary Review Board. Davis is also a member of the Atlanta Bar Association, the Lawyers Club of Atlanta, and the Stonewall Bar Association of Georgia.

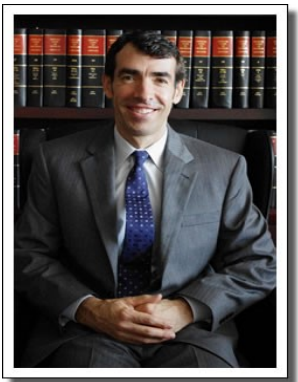

Mr. Francys Johnson, Attorney & Counselor at Law, Francys Johnson, P.C.

Mr. Francys Johnson practices criminal and civil law in the state and federal courts in Georgia from his office on Main Street in downtown Statesboro. Today, Johnson is recognized as a thought leader on voting rights having testified before Congress; lecturing across the country and writing on subjects including race, measuring equity, and understandings of power in public policy. Johnson has served in ordained ministry for more than 20 years. He is Senior Minister at the Mount Moriah Baptist Church in Pembroke and the Magnolia Baptist Church in Statesboro. Johnson has also served as a former president of the Georgia chapter of the NAACP, the nation's oldest civil rights organization.

Honorable Jane Morrison, Judge, State Court of Fulton County

Judge Jane Morrison is a state court judge for Fulton County, Georgia. Morrison currently serves as one of ten full-time judges on the Fulton County State Court, and presides over both civil and criminal cases. Morrison was elected to the court in July 2012 and joined in January 2013, and is a founding board member of the Stonewall Bar Association of Georgia. Morrison served as the Managing Attorney / Regional Director of Lambda Legal. Morrison received her Juris Doctor degree from Northeastern University School of Law.

Honorable Robert McBurney, Chief Judge, Superior Court of Fulton County

Chief Judge Robert McBurney is a judge on the Superior Court of Fulton County. McBurney was first appointed to the court by Governor Nathan Deal in February 2012. In 2014, McBurney was elected to a full term to succeed Judge Marvin S. Arrington. He was elected by the other superior court judges the Chief Judge of the court on February 1, 2018. Prior to joining the court, McBurney was senior counsel for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Georgia. He received his undergraduate degree from Harvard University and his Juris Doctor degree from the Harvard School of Law.

Honorable Rashida Oliver, City of East Point Municipal Court

Judge Rashida Oliver serves as the Municipal Court Judge for the City of East Point. She has served in that esteemed position for 20 years. However, her legal career commenced 21 years ago upon graduating from Georgia State University College of Law, and accepting a position as a legal assistant, with the Law offices of Robinson and Dixon and as an Attorney in Private Practice with Adams and Oliver, P.C. Oliver currently serves as the Chair of the Ethics and Professionalism Committee for the Council of Municipal Court Judges ("Council") and as the Council representative on the Board of the Institute of Continuing Judicial Education. She has previously served as Secretary, Vice President and President of the Council.